Farmingville, NY - On August 26, Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright participated in a "ride along" with the Three Village Meals on Wheels. The Councilwoman accompanied volunteer driver Stephen Casalini on the "Yellow Route" which departed St. Charles Hospital stocked with food trays on Tuesday morning.

"Thank you to Mr. Casalini for including me on this morning's delivery route," said Councilwoman Cartright. "Three Village Meals on Wheels provides an important community service. Both the hot food and good company are appreciated by those I had the privilege to meet on the 'ride along'. I commend all those who volunteer for this organization, you truly make a difference."
